

Vienna Young Philharmonic Orchestra is 25 years Austria's elite-orchestra of young talents from 17 to 27, musically fashioned in the Viennese tradition. Every year they elaborate ten projects and play about 25 concerts. Highlights of a successful story: in 1997 and 2007 founding concert and jubilee at Vienna Musikverein, 2001 opening concert of International Schönberg-Festival at Vienna Konzerthaus, recitals with Agnes Baltsa, Elina Garanca, José Carreras, Dave Brubeck, international tours to China, Mozarteum Brasileiro (2015), in Italy Ravello Festival (2015), Südtiroler Festspiele (2019) and Salzburg Festival in 2021.

Regular members of Vienna Philharmonic Orchestra play as soloists with the orchestra: Alben Danailova, Ildikó Raimondi, Chen Reiss, Rainer Küchl, Franz Bartolomey, Daniel Ottensamer.